The Gift of Good Luck

Some say it's bad luck
To give a knife,
That it will sever the ties
Of friendship for life.

I don't believe
That this myth is true,
But just in case,
Here's a penny for you.

Give it back to me
And now I've been "paid"
So our friendship will stay
As strong as this blade.
